

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND RECOGNITION
Advice/Principle	Examples/Stories	Contacts/Resources
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Involve Churches 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Churches United to Stop HIV (CUSH) • memoranda of understanding <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ HIV ministries ○ Training manual has biblical quotes ○ Awareness activities 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lisa Agate: Lisa_agate@doh.state.fl.us
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Outreach programs to educate partners in jail 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Providing Our Women with Education Resources (POWER) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Funds a outreach worker who educates “partners” visiting significant others in jail ○ 30 min processing/waiting time – outreach workers use that to educate and refer for HIV testing 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lisa Agate: Lisa_agate@doh.state.fl.us
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Government appointed team to provide services in jail 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Brasilia has a government appointed medical team that consists of a doctor and nurse, psychologist, social worker to provide services to people in jail (i.e. providing condoms) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Diva Castelo Branco, Brazil: dstaids@saude.df.gov.br
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reward system to encourage testing 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Testing for Turkeys <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Offer HIV testing while offering a prize. ○ In this case a fresh turkey. This allows a “cover” reason to get testing 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jeanine Reillye: reillyje@umdnj.edu
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sex education at school 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Brasilia – out of 500 problem schools , 65 have a prevention and education program including condoms exchange
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Barranquilla – has helped about 2000 young people to receive education and prevention through the global funding to fight against AIDS 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Domingo Garcia, Fxb – Columbia, Barranquilla: Columbia@afx.org dgarciaburgos@gmail.com
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Media and Political Support 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Brazil – has a Health Minister that addresses the public

• Work with the school system	• Brazil – teachers are committed to health education including STDs and HIV
	• Columbia – schools encourage sex education, however, it is really left to the individual teachers commitment
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • HIV, Children and Collaboration <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ We work with individual teachers and or principal to prepare children to meet people living with AIDS/HIV. ○ It is prepared at the child’s level. ○ This gets the information to the children early 	• Jeanine Reilly: reillyje@umdnj.edu
• Social Settings	• Atlanta – involvement of clubs. Rotary speaks to 40,000 school age youth per year	• Raphael Holloway: Raphael.holloway@Aidsatlanta.org
	• Brazil – involve various clubs and social bars – wherever groups gather
• Communication through Peers – identify the role model in the community and involve them	• U.S. – use of “popular opinion leaders” to drive public opinion	• Raphael Holloway: Raphael.holloway@Aidsatlanta.org
• Visibility of Those Infected	• New Jersey – bring student to housing facilities where people with AIDS live to gain a better understanding
• Family Communications	• Brazil and Colombia (Latin Countries) – closeness of family stimulates conversation	